

Editor – Annaleah McAvoy

2023 was another good year for CanPara! We ran a total of 5 issues with the following amount of pages per edition:

- January-March: 52
- April-May: 48
- June-July: 48
- August-September: 48
- October-December: 48

Over 95% of submissions were from jumpers who wrote-in at random while the remaining 5% were sought-out (usually over e-mail or comments made from an event on Facebook).

Victor is our dedicated graphic designer and continues to do incredible work. The translators continue to be amazing! CanPara would not be a magazine without them. For advertising, Ned has managed the contracts for the past several years and has been a champion at sourcing new advertisers while supporting the CanPara team. I am so sad to share that the January-March 2024 issue will be Ned's last. Ned, thank you for your many dedicated years at CanPara. From editor to advertising manager and everything in between, CanPara would not be where it is today without your support, dedication and creativity. We wish you nothing but the best in your future endeavors!

I will be taking over the advertising position and am looking forward to fostering the many relationships Ned has managed over the past several years.

2024 at a glance: 2024 is in full swing, we have another issue on the way (48 pages). In this issue, we will be announcing the official date for a monumental change: CanPara will be cancelling all print issues. The August - September 2024 issue will be the final hardcopy, moving towards a completely digital platform.

Despite some pretty big changes at CanPara, I look forward to the exciting year ahead!
